

Department of Social Work, SOHSS

Gautam Buddha University

About

The Department of Social Work in the School of Humanities and Social Sciences in Gautam Buddha University started in 2011. The Department of Social Work is offering Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) and Master of Social Work (MSW) programmes. BSW and MSW programmes are designed to contribute towards the developmental need and to produce efficient professionals for the development/ humanitarian sector as a whole. The syllabus is developed keeping in view the international standards and professional ethics that would give wider understanding about the basic human rights, the developmental needs and services for the people living in different cultural contexts to facilitate healthy living and well-being.

Vision

Strive for the creation of a just and equal society which ensures freedom from all forms of oppression and exploitation.

Mission

To nurture and develop dynamic and competent social work professionals to address the challenges and concerns of the 21st century that facilitates social change and positive advancements at the level of policy formation and social work practice

Field Work Practicum

The field work is an integral part of BSW and MSW training programmes providing exposure to a variety of professional situations of working with individuals, groups, and communities. The field work gives an opportunity to practice the theoretical aspects taught under the scheme and helps the individual to develop professional social work skills. Field work helps in developing social consciousness, sensitivity and empathy towards human sufferings and problems.
